SECTION 01 — THE STORY

A period at the end.

Snir. is a one-person studio that closes loops. The mark is a name and a full stop — the moment a problem stops being a problem and the work is done.

---

Built by Snir Dote, the studio works at the seam where strategy meets craft: brand systems, digital products, and the small obsessive details that make a thing feel inevitable.

The voice is direct. The aesthetic is reduced to what carries weight — heavy type, generous space, one decisive accent. Nothing decorative survives the edit.

FOUNDED 2026 — TEL AVIV / REMOTE

SECTION 02 — WHAT WE STAND ON

Four values.

The principles every project, post and pixel is measured against.

01 — CLARITY

Say it once.

If a word, a layer or a line doesn't add meaning, it's deleted. The brand is a long answer to the question: what's actually necessary?

02 — CRAFT

Quietly obsessive.

Optical alignment, tracked kerning, the right corner radius. The work doesn't shout about its details — but they're there.

03 — DIRECTNESS

No filler.

We talk to grown-ups. No buzzwords, no fluff, no "synergy." Just plain language that respects everyone's time.

04 — CONFIDENCE

Pick a lane.

A heavy mark, one accent, a single voice. Confident systems make confident clients. Indecision is the worst design choice.

SECTION 03 – THE MARK

Anatomy.

Four letters, one period. That period is not punctuation — it is the brand.

01 / WORDMARK – ARCHIVO BLACK, TRACKED -5%

02 / SET IN UPPERCASE ONLY

SNIR.

03 / THE DOT – ACCENT COLOR, NEVER BLACK

04 / OPTICAL BASELINE ALIGNED

SECTION 03 – THE TWO MARKS

Wordmark + Emblem.

01 – PRIMARY WORDMARK

02 – INVERSE

03 – BRAND PURPLE

04 – KNIGHT SEAL

05 – SEAL INVERSE

06 – SEAL ON PURPLE

SECTION 03 — SECONDARY MARK

The Knight.

A circular seal for stamps, avatars, and moments where the wordmark is too wide. Two moves ahead — the studio's strategy mark.

USE WHEN — CIRCULAR SLOTS • STAMPS • AVATARS • STICKERS • END CARDS • WAX SEALS

SECTION 03 – BREATHING ROOM

Clear space.

Always reserve a minimum of 1× the cap-height of "S" on every side of the mark. Nothing — not type, not edges, not other marks — enters this zone.

Minimum size.

SNIR.

DIGITAL – 24 PX MIN.

SNIR.

PRINT – 12 MM MIN.

SECTION 03 – DON'T

Don't.

The mark works because it's restrained.
These break it.

SECTION 06 — COMPOSITIONS

Three rules, infinite layouts.

RULE 01

Anchor with the dot.

Every composition has one — and only one — purple dot. It is the period, the bullet, the full stop.

RULE 02

SNIR. SNIR.

Let type be the image.

Set the wordmark or a single letter at huge scale, bleeding off the edge. No decoration needed.

RULE 03

Use the rule line.

Hairlines divide content into discrete blocks. Combine with mono captions for editorial rhythm.

SECTION 07 – HOW WE SOUND

Direct, not blunt.

Confident enough to leave things out.
Warm enough to mean it.

- Direct
- Confident
- Witty
- Warm
- Quietly opinionated
- Plain-spoken

DO – SAYS

YES

"Done. Live tomorrow."

Specific, low-key, finished. The reader knows exactly what just happened.

DON'T – SAYS

NO

~~"We are thrilled to announce the seamless launch of our exciting new initiative."~~

Adjective soup. Says nothing, takes longer to say it.

DO – SAYS

YES

"Two questions, then I'll send a quote by Friday."

A clear next step and a date. Respects everyone's time.

DON'T – SAYS

NO

~~"Let's circle back and align on synergies in the near future."~~

No verb that means anything. Buzzwords stand in for thinking.
